Welcome to Alice Springs, the de facto capital of Australia's vast outback. Located at the midway point between Adelaide and Darwin on the Stuart Highway, Alice is a far trek into the red dusty desert. A trip here, however, is rewarded with brilliant blue skies, vibrant sunny days, and a full load of activities for your touring pleasure.

In this trip we visit the Alice Springs Desert Park, Reptile Centre, Telegraph Station, National Road Transport Hall of Fame, School of the Air, Royal Flying Doctors, and wouldn't you believe it... so much more! Our trip is capped off with an incredible hot-air balloon ride over the stunning MacDonnell Ranges. Come and experience this fantastic part of Australia with us!
