There are a handful of Australian icons that stick out in our minds as 'musts' on our list of places we just have to see while travelling through this great country. Kakadu is one of them, and on this journey through the Top End, we learn all about this spectacular national park - from its indigenous spirit to its renowned rock art and endless beauty.

Our trip starts off in Darwin. We explore the city and its attractions, from fish feeding at Aquascene to the Mindil Beach Sunset Markets. We also take time to learn about the history of Darwin during World War II and visit the East Point Military Museum, WW II Oil Storage Tunnels, and a few other fascinating sites.

We then head east to Kakadu, stopping along the way to see some spectacular jumping crocodiles and the immense wetlands at Foggy Dam. From Kakadu, we loop back to the small towns of Pine Creek and Adelaide River. This trip wouldn't be complete without visiting the wonders of Litchfield National Park and taking a dip in its brilliant waterfalls.

All in all, it's an incredible journey, and one you just can't miss.
