On this trip, Rooty and the crew finish up their journey in the southern half of Tasmania.

Completing their loop on the Huon Trail, the crew adventure through Bruny Island and take an incredible ride aboard Bruny Island Charter Cruises.

The crew then head west into the rugged wilderness on the Rivers Run touring route. The vast mountain ranges and beauty of endless peaks greet them. In Mt Field National Park, they discover Tasmania's most famous waterfall, Russell Falls. At the end of Gordon River Road, they discover the incredible engineering wonder of the Gordon Dam.

Last, but certainly not least, they head east on the Convict Trail. Starting with the attractive town of Richmond, they meet some Tassie devils and catch a miniature pony race! No visit to this part of Tasmania would be complete without visiting Port Arthur Historic Site, where the past comes alive.

The Tasman Peninsula is an example of Mother Nature at her best, and the scenery is really something you have to see to believe. This is a trip not to be missed!
