FROM THE MAKERS OF Caravan & Motorhome On Tour MAGAZINE

You can be sure that on your travels around this great country, you will at some point find yourself on the Bruce Highway, the stretch of bitumen running from Brisbane all the way up to Cairns. This trip discovers the wonderful towns, history, and scenic attractions dotted along the way. We start off exploring the area just south of Rockhampton: Gladstone and the town of Seventeen-Seventy, the birthplace of the state. After our tour of Rockhampton, the beef capital of Queensland, our trek north begins. We pay a visit to Emu Park, Yeppoon, Sarina, Mackay, and Proserpine. The highlight of the trip is a visit to the tranquil seaside town of Airlie Beach where we join a Whitsundays cruise. This trip ends in the big city of Townsville. We stop in at a few attractions and check out one grand lookout. Whether you're planning a trip north or you just want to see what's on offer, this journey offers a great insight.
