Starting our journey east on the Tasman Highway, we pay a visit to the world-renowned Bristow Lavender Farm, stop through the quiet town of Scottsdale, and check out the impressive St Columba Falls. On the eastern coastline we soak up the beauty and tranquillity of the Bay of Fires Coastal Reserve, before heading south to discover the breathtaking Freycinet National Park. Heading back west towards Launceston, we visit the beautifully preserved colonial town of Ross and complete our loop, taste-testing some of the best Tassie products on offer! Come along and join us on this fantastic journey!

In this DVD, we complete our loop of the great state of Tasmania. From previous tours through the north-west and south of Tasmania, we uncovered great natural wonders and scenic attractions. In this trip, we discover that the north-east is just as spectacular and unique. We start off in Launceston taste-testing some great Aussie beer at Boag's Brewery and visiting those cute and cuddly-looking devils at the Tasmania Zoo. Heading north on the East Tamar Highway, we pick our own fruit at the Hillwood Strawberry Farm, take a high-flying adventure through the forest, and stop for a history lesson in George Town.
